VETERANS VOICE

A new housing advice service for disabled Veterans of the Armed Forces, Police, Fire Service and Merchant Navy.

A new housing advice service for disabled Veterans of the Armed Forces, Police, Fire Service and Merchant Navy..

The transition from the military and other services into civilian life can be a daunting experience and for those ex-servicemen and women who also have a disability, finding a suitable place to live can present additional challenges and concerns.

Staff at Veterans Voice provide a professional, compassionate and accurate housing advice service to local disabled veterans. We offer support and advice focusing on the needs and aspirations of our clients.

Information, Advice, Advocacy

DPHS trained staff can help you in the following ways

- Provide accurate advice on your housing options including social and private sector housing
- Assist in completing housing applications
- Visit you in your home or in hospital
- Advise for adaptations, telecare and occupational therapists
- Signpost to money and welfare advice
- Signpost to home energy and home safety advice
- Guide you to relevant advice agencies for help with adapting to civilian life if required
- Keep in touch with you until your housing needs are met

Contact us using the details overleaf and we will call you to arrange an appointment.
