NO PLACE LIKE HOME

A new housing advice service for people 65+ with disabilities or age related illnesses.

No Place Like Home

The Disabled Persons Housing Service Aberdeen is a local charity offering housing information, advice and advocacy to disabled people, their families and carers.

No Place Like Home is a new service for people 65+ who are in need of housing advice.

We can help you if

- you are over 65
- you are living at home but are struggling due to an age related illness or disability
- the accommodation does not meet your access needs internally or externally
- you are unable to return home from hospital because your property no longer meets your needs
- your property requires adaptation in order to meet your needs

Information, Advice, Advocacy

DPHS trained staff can help you in the following ways

- visit you at home or in hospital
- provide accurate advice on housing information including options on sheltered, very sheltered, amenity housing and care homes
- assist in completing housing applications
- advice on telecare or adaptation options in your home
- signpost to money advice or welfare rights
- home energy and home safety guidance
- Guidance on financial and welfare planning for the future
- keep in touch with you until your housing needs are met

Contact us using the details overleaf and we will call you to arrange an appointment.
